

The Mennonite Centre Heritage Club presents...
Dutch Mennonites: From Saints to Citizens

Dr. Troy Osborne

Dr. Troy Osborne, professor of History and Theological Studies at Conrad Grebel University College, will trace the development of Dutch Mennonite tradition from radical revolutionaries in the sixteenth century through the “Golden Age” of the Dutch Republic and beyond. He will introduce a unique stream of Mennonite tradition that includes artists, engineers, politicians and poets who have been at the forefront of Dutch culture and society.
